

Abby is a graduate of Belmont Abbey College where she majored in Business Management with a Minor in Marketing. Abby set for the Crusaders when they went on to win a Conference Championship her freshman year.

Prior to CUVC Abby was a director at another local club in North Carolina. She also coached at her home club in Ohio, Black Swamp Volleyball Club, for several years where she won a USA Junior National Olympic Championship.

Abby has coached a wide range of players, anywhere from national level skill clinics, to one on one new player development training. She is beyond excited to join the CUVC family!
