

Jessica grew up in the Charlotte area and started with CUVC 11 years ago as a player when she was attending high school at Covenant Day. She was recruited to play at Pfeiffer University but had an unfortunate wrist injury which ended her playing career.

After graduating from UNC Charlotte she decided to get back into the game as a coach. This will be Jessica's 3rd year coaching for CUVC.