

Lisa has been coaching volleyball for over 17 years at the high school varsity and club level. Most recently she has served as the Director of Volleyball and the Varsity volleyball coach at Gaston Christian School from 2014-2017.

She also served as Varsity and JV coach at East Gaston High School from 2002-2012 where she was the 2009 Conference Coach of the Year. Lisa has also spent time working as an Appalachian State Team Camp coach.

Lisa is a wife and mother to 3 children and resides in Belmont, NC. She says: "I have a passion for leading youth and teaching them not only about volleyball but how to succeed in life now and in the future".