

Coach Makala, also known as Coach Kay was born and raised in Rock Hill, SC. She played for Rock Hill High School and then went on to play as a defense specialist for Winthrop University.

She has been coaching high school and club volleyball for 6 years. She started her coaching career as the head 9th grade coach at Rock Hill High School and from there she went on to coach at Rock Hill Volleyball Club and then Intense Volleyball Club.

Makala joined the CUVC family last season and is excited to work for such an amazing organization that is dedicated to training players at every level and producing well rounded athletes.