

This is Michelle Phillips' second year coaching with CUVC. During her first season she coached with the boy's program.

Michelle has been coaching volleyball since 1989 beginning with Sun East Volleyball club in Phoenix. After completing her high school career in Scottsdale, she played 2 years at Scottsdale Community College, a NJCAA D1 program, and was selected All-Conference both years. After her time at SCC, she transferred to Arkansas State University to finish up her collegiate career. While at ASU, Michelle competed in both the NIVC and NCAA tournaments as well as receiving numerous all-tournament team selections as well as Sun Belt All-Conference selection. She also coached club for Arkansas Juniors while residing in Jonesboro.

She has coached at the D1, D3, high school and middle school levels in addition to club over the past 29 years. Currently, Michelle is the head volleyball coach at Cox Mill High School, has won the conference each year since taking over the program in 2014. She helped guide the Chargers to their first overall team state championship in 2016 and has participated in at least the 2nd round or higher each post-season. Her overall record at Cox Mill is 130-25 in five seasons.

Michelle is also a licensed mental health therapist, loves animals and working with children. She resides in Davidson with her husband Ronnie, two children Lauren (18), Trevor (16) and nephew Ben (15).
