

Olivia graduated in May from Appalachian State University with a major of Public Health and minor in Exercise Science. She was a member of the ASU volleyball team all four years in college as a L/DS. She also is currently the head coach for the Gaston Christian varsity volleyball team.

This will be her first year as a club coach, although she has spent countless hours helping out the different club teams her sister was on at CUVC in the past.