

Rachel Hyatt is originally from Hendersonville, NC where she played 4 years of Varsity Volleyball at West Henderson High School. During her time there, she earned many awards and recognitions including: All-Region honors, All-Area honors, and was selected for the Under Armour National Watch List.

She played travel volleyball for Xcel Sportsplex. She went on to play college volleyball in Spartanburg, SC before sustaining a shoulder injury early on in the season that ended her collegiate career. This is Rachel's 2nd season with CUVC!