

Rebecca Dellinger is joining CUVC this year. She is a Teacher, Volleyball Coach, and Track & Field Coach at Cox Mill High School in Concord, NC.

Rebecca (“Coach D”) attended the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she participated in Track & Field. She graduated with a Fine Arts Degree in 2011 and began coaching volleyball and track & field in 2012. She is in her 5th year at Cox Mill High School and has head-coached and assisted a variety of levels and age groups in the club volleyball sector.

In 2016, her women’s 400-meter relay team won the NCHSAA 3A State Championship. That fall, she was the assistant coach of the 2016 Volleyball 3A State Champions team. In 2018, Rebecca was selected as the recipient of the South Piedmont Conference Coach of the Year Award, for Track and Field. She still plays volleyball, indoor and outdoor, recreationally today and resides in Davidson with her golden retriever, Beau.
