

Sarah is beginning her 2nd season with CUVC this year. She is currently a senior at University of North Carolina at Charlotte. I transferred from William Peace University where there I played as a setter and a defensive specialist. In her first season with CUVC, Sarah was able to assist with 16 orange and head coach 16 silver.

This past season she coached the JV team at Mallard Creek High School. She has coached club ball for four years and high school for two years.
