

Tricia is joining us this year as the Director of Satellite Operations.

Tricia played 4 years at Guilford College and began coaching Junior Olympics while a player at Guilford College. When she graduated, she became a math teacher and assistant coach at RJ Reynolds (1994 State Runner Up). In 1995, she moved to Salisbury, NC and became a teacher and a coach at North Rowan High School from 1996-2002.

While at North Rowan, Tricia started the Rowan Volleyball Club. She became an administrator at WRHS and then JCHS, where she started the Carson volleyball program when the school opened its doors. Rowan Volleyball Club eventually merged with Davidson Volleyball Club to form High Rock Volleyball Club where she was one of the directors and coaches at until 2017. Currently, she is an administrator at West Rowan Middle School, where she also started the volleyball program when Rowan-Salisbury Schools implemented middle school volleyball.
